Our Theme for the Year:
Franciscan Joy

Greetings from Brother Lawrence, OFM Conv.

Happy New Year!

Well, it is time to begin another year and to remember the one just past. There are most likely many things that you can remember fondly from 2022 and some not so memorable. My suggestion, forget the bad and celebrate the glad!

There is one thing that I know that sets the new year off in a celebratory way and that is the receiving of the Epiphany extractions in the January meeting. It is a time to see what the Holy Spirit has in mind for us in 2023. I find myself to be fortunate in that I get three selections each January, one each from the two fraternities for which I am Spiritual Assistant and one from my own province. There are times when I get three that do come together and other years when I get three that just don't jive for me. I still try to figure it out and, sometimes, reading of a biography of the patrons given to me helps me to figure something out. Sometimes not.

So, enjoy the beginning of the New Year, remember to make some resolutions that you will keep and will not keep. Enjoy the beginning of the year and bring the joyousness of the new year and what God chooses to give to us.

Peace,

Br. Lawrence

Minister's Note January 2023

Have you met a person who was always joyful? There have been a few people that I have met like that. Nothing seems to upset their apple cart, even when things are not going well. They always are smiling and praising God for what they have, both good and bad. I also have met people who seem to be angry all the time. Nothing seems to make them happy. They are always looking at life as a road of sorrow, something to be endured. They tend to anticipate the next worst thing. Yet, they, too, may be taking their suffering to the Cross of Christ.

When I think about our theme for the year, Franciscan Joy, these friends are what come to mind. It isn't that they have not experienced sorrow or rejection or anger or joy or hope. It is because of these things that they seek in every moment to live in Christ. Brother Leo asked Saint Francis about "perfect joy." In that discourse, we hear that it is because of suffering that we find perfect joy:

"If we bear all these injuries with patience and joy, thinking of the sufferings of our Blessed Lord, which we would share out of love for him, write, O Brother Leo, that here, finally, is perfect joy."

(Chapter 8, Little Flowers of Saint Francis)

Maybe you are like me, and struggle with accepting the heartaches of life with ease or with the 'patience of Job,' as my grandmother would say. One confessor told me to go to the foot of the Cross and look at Jesus. He suffered the trials and tribulations of life as well. Saint Clare wrote, "Gaze upon Him, consider Him, contemplate Him, as you desire to imitate Him."

We can be gazing in the wrong direction. The enemy wants us to focus on the bad, the worst of humanity, and to feel hopeless. He does not want us to focus on the Truth, the Beauty, the Light. He wins that way.

How do we gaze upon Jesus? How can we endure with patience, with perfect joy? One is through the Sacrament of Confession. Jesus meets us there. Two is through the Sacrament of the Eucharist. Jesus meets us there. Last is through the gifts of Adoration and Prayer. Jesus meets us there. The hymn by Hazel Lemmel states this beautifully: "Turn your eyes upon Jesus, Look full in His wonderful face, And the things of earth will grow strangely dim, In the light of His glory and grace."

For me, finding perfect joy means that I am refining my mind, my heart, and my soul so that I can more perfectly see Jesus. He is there in every joy, every heartache, every sorrow, every moment of my life. As this new year begins, may we learn together more ways of finding perfect joy as Saint Francis did.

New & Improved Divine Office Website and App

At the start of the New Year, our gift to you is a new website design with a different architecture. We meant it to be fresh and beautiful, to promote our members' interactions with one another and to encourage and sustain our need to immerse in prayer away from daily distractions.

We have had the old website for 14 years and while some of you might have been very comfortable using it, we are sure the need for a change will become obvious once you'll get to know the new design and what it has to offer.

We take this opportunity to guide you briefly through the key changes and the new features:

We added to the website the 3D Spinning Globe, showing how many people around the world are praying with you.

- We worked on and improved the Comment and the Prayer Request section by adding the option to post short Intercessory Prayers and Personal Reflections directly below each prayer for the day.
- We also added a Community Forum, it can be used to share your experience, seek for spiritual support, or ask questions about our Catholic faith to the other members.
- "My Profile" page was augmented to contain your personal activity on the website, either prayers or discussion topics. And if you are a Contributor to our work, you'll also have access to your contribution records along with the option to update the contribution.
- We added more features that before were only available in our apps: you can now switch the website color scheme (dark/light), increase the font size, change the audio playback speed, and access a Full-Screen Prayer Room — completely focused on praying the Liturgy of the Hours.

Here is a video guide, an Introduction to the Divine Office New Design: <https://youtu.be/KrEvlAtWPgA>

Remember you can write to support@divineoffice.org if you have questions or need guidance or while on the website, use the support button on the bottom-right of your screen.

The <https://DivineOffice.org> website redesign was made possible by the constant and generous support of our contributors and was months in the making. We are grateful and hope you'll receive the change with joy and spread the news in your community. By doing so you'll be contributing to our mission of promoting the ancient tradition of praying the Liturgy of the Hours.

Merry Christmas and A Happy New Year!

The Rule Review

So that we might more fully live the Gospel Life, Secular Franciscans should not just read The Rule, but reflect on and pray with The Rule. This is translated and printed by Eds Armstrong, R.J, Wayne Hellman J. A., Short, W. J, Francis of Assisi: Early Documents (FA:ED), Earlier Exhortation (1LtF), p. 41.

⁸We are spouses when the faithful soul is joined by the Holy Spirit to our Lord Jesus Christ. ⁹We are brothers to Him when we do the will of the Father who is in heaven (Mt 12:50). ¹⁰We are mothers when we carry Him in our heart and body through a divine love (1Cor 6:20) and a pure and sincere conscience and give birth to him through a holy activity which must shine as an example before others (Mt 5:16). ¹¹O how glorious it is to have a holy and great Father in heaven! ¹²O how holy, consoling to have such a beautiful and wonderful Spouse! ¹³O how holy and how loving, gratifying, humbling, peace-giving, sweet, worthy of love, and, above all things, desirable: to have such a Brother and such a Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, who laid down his life for his sheep (Jn 10:15) and prayed to his Father saying: ¹⁴Holy Father, in your name (Jn 17:11) save those whom you have given me in the world; they were yours and you gave them to me (Jn 17:6). ¹⁵The words that You gave to me I have given to them, and they have accepted them and have believed in truth that I have come from You and they have known that you have sent me (Jn 17:8). ¹⁶I pray for them and not for the world (Jn 17:9). ¹⁷Bless and sanctify them (Jn 17:17). I sanctify myself for them (Jn 17:19). ¹⁸I pray not only for them, but for those who will believe in me through their word (Jn 17:20) that they may be sanctified in being one as we are (Jn 17:11). ¹⁹I wish, Father, that where I am, they also may be with me that they may see my glory (Jn 17:24) in your kingdom. Amen (Mt 20:21).

Jim Tebo, OFS

Our brother, Jim Tebo passed away on Christmas Day. Along with Jean Singleton, Jim Manning, and Jean Manning, Jim Tebo was a founding member of St. Joseph Cupertino Fraternity at St. Mark's parish in Catonsville. In 1990 St. Joseph Cupertino Fraternity moved at the request of Fr. Bart Karwacki, OFM Conv. to St. Joseph Cupertino Friary, now called the Shrine of St. Anthony in Ellicott City, Maryland.

Jim and John Kirby could often be seen on Sunday mornings at the Double T Diner in Catonsville with a group of guys who were either homeless or had physical disabilities. Jim was a true Franciscan in the sense of his caring and love for those less fortunate. Jim was also our fraternity historian for many years and loved to give talks at ongoing formation at fraternity gatherings, on the Saints. Jim was a beautiful person and his Franciscan spirit shown brightly within him. May our brother, Jim, rest in the Spirit of our loving Father.
