SPIRITUAL ASSISTANT'S MESSAGE

June, 2019

Our 22nd article to the Rule tells us:

" The local fraternity is to be established canonically. It becomes the basic unit of the whole Order, the community of love. This should be the privileged place for developing a sense of Church and the Franciscan vocation for enlivening the apostolic life of its members."

As is already known by all of us, all of the fraternities are to be the fundamental living unions of the entire order and also visible representatives and models of the whole Church. Thus, their beginnings and developments are guided by the authority of the Church, and are also the center for apostolic outreach, spiritual growth and a loving union among its members. The fraternity members are to relate to one another more personally and strongly with emphasis on ties with the local bishop.

Next month, our 23rd article which talks about the admission and status of membership in the Order.

God bless, Mike

JUNE FEAST DAYS AND HOLY DAYS

ASENSCION OF OUR LORD— Thursday May 30, 2019, celebrated on Sunday June 2, 2019.

June 1, 2019, First Saturday (First Saturday Devotions to make reparation for offenses against the Blessed Mother) (10,000 Hail Mary's with the Fiestas at St Judes),

Also June 1st: St. Justin, Martyr. St. Justin was born as pagan in about 100 AD and is one of the greatest early saints of our Church. His description of the Mass and Eucharist are completely in accord with modern belief and practice. The following excerpt about St. Justin is timely in light of the Feast Days this month of the Pentecost, the Holy Trinity and the Sacred Heart,

<http://www.newadvent.org/cathen/o8580c.htm> :

“The Holy Ghost occupies the third place in the Trinity (I Apol., vi). He inspired the prophets (I Apol., vi;xxxii; Dialogue with Trypho 7). He gave seven gifts to Christ and descended upon Him (Dialogue with Trypho 87-88). For the real distinction between the Son and the Spirit see Teder, op. cit., 119-23. Justin insists constantly on the virgin birth (I Apol., xxii; xxxiii; Dialogue with Trypho 43, 76, 84, etc.) and the reality of the flesh of Christ (Dialogue with Trypho 48, 98 and 103; cf. II Apol., x, 1). He states that among the Christians there are some who do not admit the Divinity of Christ but they are a minority; he differs from them because of the authority of the Prophets (Dialogue with Trypho 96); the entire dialogue, moreover, is devoted to proving this thesis. Christ is the Master whose doctrine enlightens us (I Apol., xiii, 3; xxiii, 2; xxxii, 2; II, viii, 5; xiii, 2; Dialogue with Trypho 8, 77, 83, 100 and 113), also the Redeemer whose blood saves us ... As to the Eucharist, the baptismal Mass and the Sunday Mass are described in the first "Apology" (lxv-lxvii), with a richness of detail unique for that age. Justin here explains the dogma of the Real Presence with a wonderful clearness (lxvi, 2): "In the same way that through the power of the Word of God Jesus Christ our Saviour took flesh and blood for our salvation, so the nourishment consecrated by the prayer formed of the words of Christ . . . is the flesh and blood of this incarnate Jesus." The "Dialogue" (cxvii; cf. xli) completes this doctrine by the idea of a Eucharistic sacrifice as a memorial of the Passion.... Justin was a witness for Christ unto death.

Minister's Message

Throughout each month, I wonder what is most important to mention in my Minister's Message. This month, I would like to mention several things. First, please remember to pray every day for the poor souls in purgatory. I read recently that Blessed Catherine Anne Emmerich insisted that it was more important to pray for the souls in purgatory than even the conversion of sinners. She had great mystical insight into how many souls in purgatory there are and the extent of their sufferings. As she prayed fervently for the poor souls, she saw them change in appearance from dark to light. I am reminded once again that the souls in purgatory can not pray for themselves and need us to pray for them to hasten their road to Heaven. Sadly I can't remember the saint who, when faced with an urgent need, went for help to the Holy Souls. It seems to me clear that when we offer our prayer for them, and ask them to pray for our intentions, we are the ones who benefit the most. I am 100% convinced that the prayers of the Holy Souls for my intentions, when secured by my prayers for them, are far stronger than would be my own prayers for my own intentions.

Eighth Day: The Divine Mercy Novena

THE SOULS WHO ARE DETAINED IN PURGATORY ...'

Second, this month has the most amazing Solemnities and Memorials. Please try to pay (and pray) close attention to our Church Calendar! Hope to see many of you on our bus trip.

God Bless Us All! Susan
