Minister's Message

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

Sisters and Brothers of Penance, Taudi, εὐχαριστέω, Toda Raba – no matter how you spell it, it means to give thanks, or, thanksgiving. On November 24th, our country will celebrate Thanksgiving, a parallel of our Eucharist, thanking God for his gifts. Perhaps the secular world has forgotten why we celebrated the first Thanksgiving in 1621, diminishing its meaning to an excuse to eat too much. For nearly two thousand years we have celebrated the Eucharist every day in the most holy sacrament of the altar, a fleeting moment of joy in our day. We see our sacramental Thanksgiving as giving and receiving, as heaven touches earth. Yes, families and friends gather on Thanksgiving and this is a wonderful time, but when our faith family gathers what we receive is Divine. Don't forget to give.
In Francis and Clare,

Tom
