Message from our Minister...

Brothers and Sisters of Francis and Clare,

Our October meeting brought Theresa into the Franciscans as a candidate. The Rite of Admission was beautiful. So many of our members were able to be there and participate in this special day. I love the Rite of Admission. It was a blessing that we were able to have it this past month. Below are some of the pictures Susan took that day.

Last month the newsletter included some questions that had been raised in the Chapter of Mats. We had a great discussion about what we see as our Franciscan spirituality and charism. Along with other thoughts, the discussion touched on being Christ centered, and striving to embrace humility, Lady Poverty, and all of creation.

This month I would like to bring some additional questions from the Chapter of Mats to your attention. I would like you to think about this new set of questions that were discussed during the Chapter of Mats, and we'll discuss them during our next meeting. I would like to bring your thoughts to the Regional Minister's conference this month.

Initially, what drew you to the Secular Franciscan Order? What joys and challenges do you encounter in living your vocation?

What are our fraternity's most significant challenges? What are its greatest strengths?

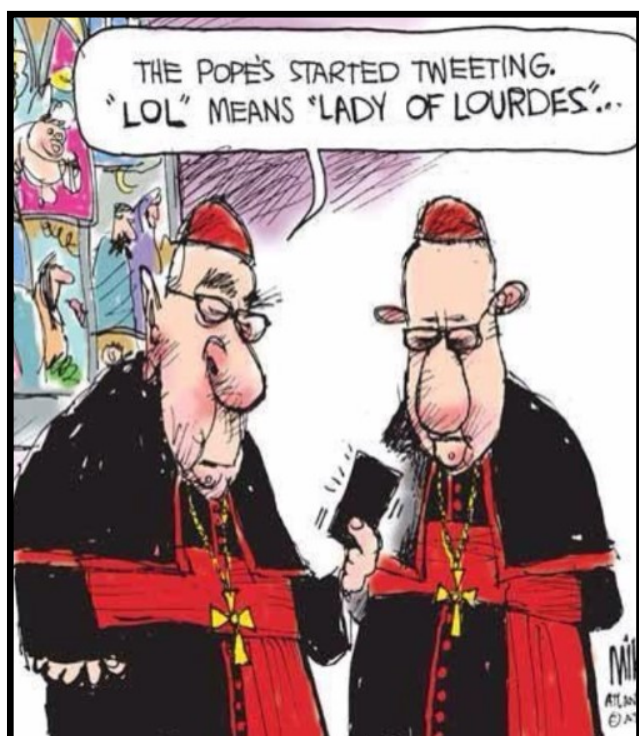

What more can we do to attract more members?

I wish all of you a blessed All Saint and All Souls feast days and I hope to see you at the November meeting.

Peg
