Note from Brother Lawrence, OFM Conv. Will return

O Most Blessed Mother, heart of love, heart of mercy, ever listening, caring, consoling, hear our prayer. As your children, we implore your intercession with Jesus your Son. Receive with understanding and compassion the petitions we place before you today, especially... (special intention).

We are comforted in knowing your heart is ever open to those who ask for your prayer. We trust to your gentle care and intercession, those whom we love and who are sick or lonely or hurting. Help all of us, Holy Mother, to bear our burdens in this life until we may share eternal life and peace with God forever.

Amen.

Minister's Note

Saint Bonaventure says that the path to happiness lies with “ultimate union with the one who is the fountain and origin of all goods....” (Tree of Life, Bonaventure)

One of the songs from Scout camp last week had the lines” Are you happy? You bet your life I am...”

Despite the heat, and thunderstorms, there was a certain amount of peace at camp. All cares fell away, as I listened to my scouts read daily devotions from the Psalms, and watched them learn and grow.

I have discovered many times that serving others is a path to happiness. I forget about my own cares, as I support others.

Happiness comes in making the rock pile smaller while building a trail. It comes from watching scouts conquer their fear of heights 25 feet above the ground as they walk on the high wires while I belay them.

Happiness also comes from knowing sadness. We would not be able to distinguish one without experiencing the other.

Ultimately, everything that we do or say should be through the lens of whether it unites us with Christ, our ultimate source of happiness.

We should strive in our lives so that everything becomes a part of the path that leads us to heaven.

We can move rocks or belay those on the high wire of life. We can pray for those who can't pray for themselves. We can form our lives in a way that allows us to guide others along the pathway.

We can be the source of happiness for others where ever their path is leading them. May we follow the direction that Christ has set for us until we are united with him.

Peace and love

Melissa
